15 Overdrafts & Negative Accounts
If an Accepting Location attempts to process a transaction for more than the value available in Your Hawk Cash account, the transaction will be declined. For self-service transactions, Your account must have a balance at least as high as the highest priced item available for sale at the self-service location. Your account will be charged only the amount of the purchase actually selected; however Your transaction history may temporarily show the transaction at the higher amount. If, for any reason, a transaction is processed for more than the value in the Hawk Cash account, You are liable for that entire amount and agree to pay any overdraft immediately on demand. We reserve the right to (i) automatically debit such overdrafts from any available value present now or in the future on this Hawk Cash account or any other Hawk Card accounts or Payment Methods You have on file at Saint Joseph’s University, (ii) suspend Your Hawk Cash account until payment on negative account is made in whole. If any funds to which You are not legally entitled are credited to Your Account by mistake or otherwise, You agree that such amounts are debts owing from You to Us and You authorize Us to deduct such amounts from Your Account to the extent permitted by law. You authorize Us to take this action without notice or demand to You.

From time to time, We may, at Our sole discretion, offer loyalty and discount programs that allow You to accumulate and receive benefits, awards and discounts from accepting locations. However, We may take up to 45 days to investigate the discrepancy. If We take more than 10 days to investigate a problem, We will re-credit the account holder’s account within 10 business days for the amount of the discrepancy so that the account holder will have use of the value during the time it takes Us to complete Our investigation. If the account holder is asked to put the discrepancy in writing and We do not receive it within 10 business days, We may not re-credit the account.
